

KEYSTONE REGION OF USA VOLLEYBALL

NEW REFEREE PROGRAM FAQ

Why should I become a volleyball referee in the Keystone Region of USA Volleyball?

- Enhance the quality of volleyball events and improve the players' experiences
- Make money being involved in a sport you love
- Enhance your resume and improve your organizational & communication skills
- Expand your personal and professional networks

How much will I get paid as a referee?

- $35/match with pay increases as certification level progresses
- Referees can expect 6-8 matches per tournament day

How do I sign-up

- Complete the New Referee Interest form.
- Sign-up for the correct membership type via SportsEngine
- Complete USA Volleyball background check, SAFESPORT training, and USAV Academy modules online

What training am I required to complete?

- Referee training modules in the USA Volleyball Academy
- SAFESPORT training
- Keystone Region referee rules exam
- One full-day on-court training session with The OVR Referee Training Team

What are the costs to get started?

- KRVA/USAV first year official membership - $60
- Background check (18 and older) - $14
- Certified Referee Shirt: ~$40
- Navy Pants ~$15
- Referee equipment (red & yellow cards, net chain, ball pump/gauge): ~$40

Contact: Trish Hoover (KRVAofficiating@gmail.com)